

A state label is credible only with a stability ledger

Initialization, preprocessing, component count and repeated samples answer different questions

ARI comparisons use profile-matched $k = 4$ states on overlapping samples.
Suffix-derived pairs are descriptive because clinical visit timing is not distributed.