

Pairwise dominance effects remain uncertain

Cliff's delta with stratified bootstrap 95% percentile intervals

Positive values mean that a random Group A sample tends to have higher diversity than Group B.
Holm adjustment covers all nine planned contrasts.