

A phyloseq object is an audited intersection

Every component is keyed before the five-slot object is serialized

